Marquette County Habitat for Humanity is an equal opportunity program and therefore shall make housing equally available to all qualified families without discrimination. With the scope of their application process, MCHFH will not consider the following factors: sex, marital status, race, color, religion, and national origin, and age, receipt of public assistance income, physical handicap or family status.

I understand that by signing this application, I am authorizing Habitat for Humanity to evaluate my home and the need for repairs, my ability to repay the no interest loan and other expenses of homeownership, and my willingness to be a partner family. I understand that the evaluation may include personal visits, and income verification. I have answered all the questions on this application truthfully. I understand that if I have not answered the questions truthfully, my application may be denied, and that even if I have already been selected to receive a home repair, I may be disqualified from the program. The original or copy of this application will be retained by Habitat for Humanity even if the application is not approved.

Program Guidelines:

Marquette County Habitat for Humanity’s Home Repair Program assists low to moderate income families with critical home repairs. The family must meet all program criteria to qualify:

1. Critical home repair need
2. Income qualified
3. Own and occupy the home
4. Ability to potentially pay for repairs with a no-interest loan through Marquette County Habitat for Humanity.
5. Willingness to partner with Marquette County Habitat for Humanity

All program recipients must complete “Sweat Equity.” Sweat Equity generally means working on your home project or on another Habitat project and is geared for your physical abilities. Sweat Equity can also be completed in the ReStore, the Habitat office or at another qualified area non-profit agency.
